

Segregation in Pittsburgh, 1930
Map by Joe Darden

Redlining in Syracuse, 1937
Map by Home Owners Loan Corporation

Urban renewal in San Francisco, 1960's
Diagram by Sebastian Quinn

Planned shrinkage in Harlem, 1995
Photo by Lesley Rennis-Green

Gentrification in Englewood, 2005
Photo by Mindy Fullilove

Housing, Health and Serial Displacement

A conference at the New York Academy of Medicine

April 8, 2009, 8:30 to 5

Registration free, Box lunch $10

Urban renewal, highway construction, gentrification, HOPE VI, foreclosure crisis: a long list of policies and programs have led to the displacement of communities. What is little understood is that these policies have led to repeatedly upheaval in American cities, destroying housing and undermining health. This conference will explore the history, tactics and consequences of serial displacement.

Program:

Keynote: Thomas Hanchett, Author of Sorting Out the New South City

Morning Panel: Serial displacement and health

- Mindy Thompson Fullilove, NYS Psychiatric Institute
- Rodrick Wallace, NYS Psychiatric Institute
- Pat Sharkey, Columbia University

Working Groups: Linking Serial Displacement to Our Work

LUNCH

Afternoon Panel:

- Mehret Mandefro, TruthAIDS
- Patrick Morrissy, HANDS, Inc., Orange NJ
- Terri Baltimore, Hill House, Pittsburgh

Working Groups: Identifying New Perspectives

Afternoon Keynote: Displacement as a violation of human rights

Summary and Closing Remarks: David Vlahov, NY Academy of Medicine

New York Academy of Medicine is located at:

1216 5th Ave

New York, NY 10029

Sponsors (list in formation):

NYAM Working Group on Serial Displacement

Community Research Group, NYSPI & Columbia University

Columbia Center for Youth Violence Prevention

Columbia Center on Homelessness Prevention